Peabody Buys One-Third Interest In Campbell Press; Corporation Formed

Campbell Press Publishers Eugene W. Barnes and Clifford T. Cassidy today announced that Patrick H. Peabody, valley publisher and radio station owner, has purchased a one-third interest in the Campbell Press and a closed corporation has been formed.

When incorporation papers are returned from Sacramento, each of the three men will have an equal vote in the publishing corporation. Stockholders are Barnes, Cassidy and Peabody.

FINER PAPER

Barnes stated the move was made to give Campbell a finer newspaper through installation of new, modern equipment, and to provide a sufficient amount of working capital to put the business on a par with the better type weeklies in the United States.

The announcement came as the Campbell Press was completing its first week in new larger quarters on Dillon Avenue off E. Campbell Avenue.

Peabody is a former publisher of the Campbell Press, having purchased the paper from Mr. and Mrs. G. Martin Allen, former owners. Barnes and Max L. Freeman bought the paper from Peabody on October 15, 1948, with Freeman, in turn, selling his share of the business to Cassidy on January 1, 1949.

Barnes and Freeman started the second publication of the plant, the Campbell Press Shopper's Guide in late 1948. Since then, Barnes and Cassidy purchased the Saratoga Observer in April of 1949, and began publishing the Cupertino Courier in January, 1950.

In addition to the four weekly papers, the plant also handles a large amount of job printing and sets the type for the weekly Campbell high school paper. Two new job presses to handle specialized work have augmented the Press plant equipment since the move to new quarters over the weekend.

NEW PRESS

A new newspaper press to be installed in the near future will have twice the capacity of the present newspaper press and will step up the publication date one day. A new composing machine is also to be added.

THREE MERCHANDISE ORDER AWARDS TO BE PRESENTED SHOPPERS DURING FOURTH FRIDAY NIGHT PROGRAM

Three more awards will be presented to Campbell shoppers tonight in the fourth week of the Friday night shopping program. The merchandise orders for $15, 10, and $5 will be presented at 9:15 p.m. in the Blue Bell Cafe.

With the increase in the number of participating merchants, cost to each has been gradually reduced from the $5 per merchant for the first week, to $3 in this fourth week.

Expense of the program can be further reduced with addition of more participating merchants. A majority of the businessmen have been well pleased with the results to date, and are urging other merchants to join in the business-building program.

All Campbell area businesses are cordially invited to join in this effort to increase the business volume in Campbell. Interested merchants may phone Forrest Reese, secretary-manager of the Campbell Chamber of Commerce, at Campbell 3442, or they may contact any member of the chamber's Merchant's Committee which is handling the Friday shopping program. Members of the committee are Joe Fusaro, chairman; L. O. McConnell, Henry Sanfilippo, Mary Ann DeRose and Red Belz.

During the hours of 6 to 9 p.m. tonight, the following participating merchants will issue tickets to their customers entitling them to participate in the awards selection: J&A Market, Burnett's Appliances, Horace's Complete Market, Campbell Hardware, Jeffers Men and Boys Wear, Star Family Shoe Store, Helen's Juvenile Shop, Dolly Ann Shop, Fabric Center, McCoy Auto Sales and Service, Grannis Furniture, Bud's Texaco Station, Gamble's Western Auto Supply, M&M Ice Cream, Rachel's

Dr. W. R. Morgan Nominated For Kiwanis Office

Dr. W. R. Morgan was named a candidate this week for the office of lieutenant-governor of Division 12, Kiwanis International, covering the California-Nevada area. He was named to succeed L. Vernon Owen, San Jose printer.

Nomination was made Sunday at the division caucus and Morgan probably will be opposed at the California-Nevada District convention to be held next month in Santa Cruz.

After their regular luncheon Tuesday, Campbell Kiwanians toured the Borchers Brothers cement plant in San Jose. William Wadsworth was in charge of the program.

School District Defendant In Court Suit

Suit has been filed against Campbell Union School District by Lawrence Wesley and Thelma Jesse Hawkins for $111,793.28 for the death of their daughter, Barbara Jo Hawkins, 9, this summer.

The child fell from a playground exercise bar and struck her head. She died soon afterward. The parents charge school authorities with negligence in upkeep of the playground. Attorney Robert Morgan represents the Hawkinses.

In another suit, Clarence D. Johnson and Robert Porter seek $13,500 from A. T. Riblett for injuries received August 6 in an auto accident at San Jose-Los Gatos Road and Moorpark Avenue. Their attorneys are Callaghan, Giannini and Anello.

DELIA SANDOVAL IN CONTEST FOR FAIR QUEEN TITLE

Delia Sandoval, 23, was chosen official representative of the Campbell area for the Miss Santa Clara County Fair contest by patrons of the Campbell Theater last weekend. The young girl, who lives on Railway Avenue, will participate in preliminaries tonight with other contestants in the administration building on the fairgrounds.

Each contestant will be interviewed and will read a 100-word publicity release which will be recorded and played back to the judges. Each will wear a farm-ette costume, and judging will be on basis of photogenic qualities, voice, personality and appearance. Final judging is slated for Sunday noon at the fairgrounds.

Miss Sandoval, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Felix Sandoval, 144 Railway Avenue, has been a resident of Campbell for about a year. She is an usherette at the theater.

Glenn Skaggs Reported Killed In Korea; Parents Hold Out Hope Of Army Error

Mr. and Mrs. Isom O. Skaggs of 57 Sunnyside Avenue, were notified August 24 by War Department telegram that their son, Pfc. Glenn Willard Skaggs, 19, US Marine Corps, was killed in action in Korea on August 17.

The telegram, however, bore a serial number different from that of young Skaggs, and his parents are seeking further information from military and Red Cross officials in hopes that there has been a mistake.

Pfc. Skaggs was born in Oklahoma and he and his family moved here about 11 years ago. He attended Campbell elementary and high schools, enlisting in the Marine Corps two years ago this month while still a high school student.

Recently he returned to the States after 17 months of duty in Guam and was home in mid-July. He reported for duty in San Diego and shortly thereafter left for overseas duty with the First Marine Division.

Skaggs has a brother, Darwin, 25, in the Merchant Marine, now recovering at home from a recent operation, and a sister, Mrs. Maureen Trammel of Campbell. Mr. Skaggs is with Hunt's Cannery.

According to a relative of the family, the Marine private wrote home on the average of every five days, but no word has been received since August 15. The War Department telegram said further details would follow in a letter to the parents.

Local Future Farmers Play Vital Role In Jr. Division At County Fair

Campbell youngsters, this year as in the past, will play an important part in the Junior Department of the Santa Clara County Fair, September 11 through 17.

The local chapter of the Future Farmers of America, one of the oldest in the state, has 13 boys entering various exhibits, from trailers to chicks.

Blood Bank Unit Gets 54 Pints In Visit Here

Hunt's Cannery workers and other Campbell residents contributed 54 pints of blood to the war effort and to meet emergencies at home when the mobile unit of the blood bank set up a receiving station here yesterday at the Methodist parish house.

SOME FORGOT

The total was considerably less than that expected, largely due to the great number of people who promised to give, then failed to turn up on blood bank day. Mrs. Ethan Lanphear reported that more than 130 persons signed up or told volunteer workers they would give blood yesterday, including 80 from the cannery.

Altogether 54 pints were collected and 22 would-be donors were rejected. Incidentally, blood procurement chairman Bud Levenberg said some of those rejects were necessary because prospective donors ate lunch before going to the collection center. Only black coffee or pure fruit juices may be consumed during the four hours before giving blood.

Levenberg praised volunteer workers who worked for hours signing up prospective donors. The faithful volunteers were Mrs. N. J. Mahon, Mrs. Ann Gardner and Mrs. Ethan E. Lanphear, plus others who were on hand yesterday assisting at the center.

"My sincere thanks to all who so generously gave of their time when the Mobile Blood Unit visited Campbell Thursday, August 31. Everyone who was asked to participate did so and most willingly," said Levenberg.

In thanking the people who gave, Levenberg expressed particular appreciation for the cannery employees from Hunt's, "who made up the bulk of the donors. It was most gratifying," he added, "to see over 75 people respond to our calls."

The many who agreed to give, but did not show up will be able to give a pint of blood when the mobile unit returns to Campbell in about three months time.

An example of Campbells' success at previous fairs may be seen in the fact that last year, the local FFA topped more than 120 prizes and awards.

Being in the center of the prune, apricot and cherry belt, they have specialized in the dried fruits exhibits. According to Al Smith, faculty advisor, all major prizes in the dried fruits class have been won by his boys over a period of four years.

Three boys will represent the chapter in this class at the coming fair, Smith said. They are Rowland Williams, Richard Farnham and Howard Kaeding.

The remaining 10 participants are Joe Gomes Jr., Glen Gabbard, George Nelson, Paul Stark, Dick Abernathy, Frank Weltz, Artie Alvares, Melvin Blue, Jim Zisch, and Charles Gibbins.

Combined, the boys will enter 14 hogs, one sheep and 8 chickens. In the vegetable class, the Future Farmer have readied almost every describable legume from the Crookneck squash to red-glove onions. About 250 separate vegetable entries will be posted, Smith said.

Starting with the second day of the fair, when sheep are judged, every youthful participant will wait with suppressed anticipation. FFA members and other youth groups in this area have spent months preparing projects for display and caring for animals to be shown in the livestock department. A common sight around the county is a youngster "slicing up" his animal, mentally counting the days until his pet will go on the auctioneer's block.

An amusing bit of information was revealed by Smith when asked about the boys' hogs. He said that the youths named their animals after favorite girl friends. He explained no further.

The Campbell chapter was organized in 1917 at the high school. Campbell high was one of the first five schools to instigate the FFA movement in the state. Smith stated that this year there are 65 boys active in the group with interest in related work ever mounting.

In addition to individual exhibits, the club, as a whole, will take a booth to the fair. Planned and built by the boys, the project depicts the progress of agriculture in this area over the past 100 years.

Prune Industry's History Retold For Kiwanians

The history of the French prune in California, from its introduction here by Louis Pelletier to its present position as an important economic factor in the life of Santa Clara Valley agriculture was the speaker's topic Tuesday at the Campbell Kiwanis Club meeting.

Rick Wells of the California Prune and Apricot Growers Association, spoke on the Development of the Prune Industry in Santa Clara Valley, and showed the widely-known color film, "A Fortune in Two Trunks" in conjunction with his talk. The film depicts the story of the prune from the arrival of two valuable roots of the prune tree from France in the two trunks to its present vast cultivation in this area. Many of the scenes were filmed in the Campbell Cooperative dryer.

Joseph Gomes, chairman of the day, introduced the speaker. President William C. Henley presided. Next Tuesday the group will hold its usual luncheon, after which members will tour the Borchers Bros. cement plant. Kiwanians have been advised to wear old clothes for the tour.

Falls From Car

Elmer Mullins, 22, of San Jose, suffered lacerations on his back when he fell from a moving car Wednesday on San Jose-Los Gatos Road near Campbell.

Opening Date Of Campaign Postponed To September 26 By Service Fund Group

Three more Campbell residents have joined the publicity committee for the coming Campbell Community Service Fund drive, committee chairman George Kemp announced today. Latest to add their talents to the group are Mrs. Arthur Cowdery, Mrs. William Beyer, and Mrs. Clarence Helmbold.

They will serve with Mr. Warren Brown, Mrs. James E. Morrison, Mrs. Donald Lantz, Mrs. Florence Lucas and Mr. Larry Keck.

Keck also stated that the opening day of the drive has been postponed from September 15 to September 22. On September 22, Campbell area businessmen will participate in a giant kickoff breakfast at Bues Cove in the Campbell high school, with Laurance J. Hill serving as chairman of the event.

St. Lucy's CYO Holds Successful Barbecue Sunday

Fun and frolic prevailed Sunday afternoon at the Matasei ranch as the St. Lucy's CYO held its first annual chicke barbecue with approximately 180 people present.

The purpose of the affair was to raise funds for a new parish hall to replace the one that was destroyed by fire several years ago. The afternoon was highlighted by numerous games, contests and tilts of skill.

Miss Mary Perata won a 12-lb. ham in a special events contest. Other amusing pastimes included an egg-throwing contest, nail-driving competition for ladies only and sack racing. Dancing provided additional entertainment.

Mr. Clyde Gray won the horse-shoe tournament after several hours of heated rivalry. Among the local merchants contributing to the success of the barbecue were Campbell Hardware, Fabric Center, Whatnot Shop, Helen's Juvenile Shop and Star Family Shoe Store.

Methodist Groups Plan Meetings

"The Common Life Glorified" will be the sermon topic of Rev. L. J. Osborne at the Methodist Church Sunday morning. Special music will be a part of the worship service, as well as three of the best known hymns for congregational singing.

Sunday School classes will hold their regular sessions at 9:45 a.m. The Young Adults of the church will have a fellowship pot-luck dinner in the parish house at 6 o'clock Sunday evening. All young adults and their children are invited to this fellowship hour.

The Executive Board of the Women's Society of Christian Service will meet in the parish house on Thursday morning at 10 o'clock.

Justice Court Collects $340 In Traffic Fines

Justice of the Peace Martin S. Walsh reported today that $340 in traffic fines were collected by his office during August.

Of the $340, overparking violations paid $11. The balance of the fines were paid for drunk driving and intersection violations.

T. M. Bohn, Fair's New 'Cheery Farmer,' Possesses Able Theatrical Background

To be selected representative of a county totalling around 288,000 people is an honor for anyone, especially when the chosen individual depicts the county's prime industry at such an important function as the Santa Clara County Fair.

This honor was rendered to T. M. (Ebb) Bohn of Route 2, Box 293, of Campbell, who was selected to portray the fair's symbol, the "Cheery Farmer".

A resident of Campbell for eight years, the congenial, smiling "Ebb" is well qualified for the versatile role, both personally and professionally. He is the father of seven children and has five grandchildren. Five of them live at home while one daughter abides in Santa Clara and another in San Jose.

Bohn, 50, has long been associated with the theatrical profession, being connected with the old Hippodrome theater in Los Angeles from 1929 to 1937.

In 1935 he was the leader of a hill-billy band called the Rocky Mountain Mountaineers. Among his performers were Leonard Slye,

Meanwhile, schedule for the $11,000 fund drive includes a preliminary canvass of workers at Hunt's Cannery. During the week of September 22 to 29, volunteer workers will canvass the business district in Campbell for donations, then comes the residential community drive beginning on the 29th.

A daily record of the drive's success will be recorded on the office window of Justice of the Peace Martin S. Walsh in the IOOF Hall, First and Campbell Avenues, where a huge painted gong will represent the $11,000 goal. Aimed at the gong will be a large weight which will be advanced toward the gong as the donations mount.

Other tentative plans to publicize the drive to raise funds for youth and welfare work in the area include publicity collars to be placed on milk bottles, a speaker's bureau to carry the word to local organizations, drive announcements in grocery circulars, church bulletins, bank and business house statement enclosures, billboards, shop window posters, slips to be placed by merchants in shopping bags, and a letter urging support of the drive which children will receive at school and take to their parents.

AIRPLANE SIGN
Committee member Warren Brown even suggested that he trail a huge sign from the tail of the airplane of which he is a part owner. Just where and how such a sign can be obtained is the poser facing the energetic drive workers at this moment.

Purpose of all these publicity projects is to show how the Community Service Funds help the youth of this area, and to make the advance introduction for the house-to-house canvassers who will follow.

Kemp has emphasized that this fund serves all youth in the Campbell area, including those residing in Cambrian, Union, Moorpark, Moreland, San Tomas and Campbell districts—thus the unincorporated area lying between San Jose and Los Gatos. This section is a community in itself and the fund serves the entire area, Kemp explained.

Bohn said that at the time Rogers was working for him, Columbia Studios were feuding with Gene Autry, their star western actor. Rogers was hired to replace the belligerent Autry. When Autry and the studio settled their difficulties, Rogers remained on the lot. Bohn said he was the first person to hire Rogers into the show business.

Bohn had his own radio band during the 1930's, playing over radio station KMTR, Hollywood. While in radio he worked with such noted personalities as Edgar Bergen,

A second well has come in since then with about the same rate of productivity. The Osbornes, on their two-month holiday, took their grandson, Richard Osborne, to Sidney where he is staying on the farm. "The weather was fine. We even had glorious rain in Washington." Thus MRS. RAY WOOD reported in telling of the vacation trip during which she and her husband, and daughter LORRAINE, covered 2200 miles by motor in California and the Pacific northwest. During their two and one-half weeks' holiday, the Woods visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Eustus in Centralia, Washington, his aunt in Portland, Oregon, and viewed such western scenery as Crater Lake and Feather River Canyon. On the return trip they stopped in Stockton to see one of their sons, Harvey Wood, and his children, and in San Francisco they joined another son, Newton Woods, his wife and daughter, for the day. As for the rain, it was part of the beautiful weather and the Campbellites just wish this town could have had some of it.

Campbell's Community Service Fund Benefits Outlined; Library A Leader

Rapid growth of the population in and around Campbell makes it advisable that these new citizens understand something of the background of Campbell's institutions which benefit from the annual Campbell Community Service Fund drive held in the fall of the year.

Many of the newcomers have been accustomed to incorporated communities where civic functions are carried on by paid employees.

Since Campbell is unincorporated, civic duties are undertaken by interested and devoted men and women, or organized groups within the area.

CAMPBELL LIBRARY

One such function is that of the local library upkeep. 43 years ago, a small group of women organized and incorporated as the Country Woman's Club of Campbell in order to buy a lot and erect a building that would house the books collected and cared for by the Campbell Library Association. The lot whereon the present building is situated was the gift of the late E. L. Price and his wife, Ida C. Price, organizer and first president of the Country Woman's Club.

Mr. Price also loaned to the club the money, without interest, that was used in the erection of the small building at the rear of the lot where the club held meetings and where the books were housed. After the Country Library was available as a source of books, the small building, always inadequate and uncomfortable, was seriously unequal to the requirements of a community library.

In 1922 the members of the Country Woman's Club, about 60 in number, decided that they could never, through their own efforts, raise sufficient funds to erect a library building that would be a credit to the growing community. Through the years they had accumulated a few hundred dollars, sufficient to pay for the sidewalk and paving on First Street, and to go quite far toward furnishing a building.

FUND CAMPAIGN

They organized committees to seek funds for the construction of the building to house a library and provide the community with a room to be used for public meetings.

Their campaign goal of $10,000 was proposed by Architect Howard Higbie as sufficient to build the structure. Eventually, the amount was pledged, and it is to the credit of the then residents of Campbell that every pledge except two, one for $25 and the other for $1.50, was met.

In order to raise the amount in pledges, the clubwomen absorbed all the overhead and handled the necessary clerical work.

On September, 1923, the first meeting of the club was held in the new building, with a debt of $2500 still to be met by the club. This debt was assumed by the president, Mrs. E. R. Kennedy; and secretary, Mrs. L. J. Carboni signed a note for the club, with the Library Association concurring in the matter.

MORTGAGE BURNED

This was paid off in a few years and the mortgage was burned. The furnishing of the building was a great task. Every curtain was made and hung by the club women, every chair was painted, the windows were cleaned inside and out not by professional cleaners, for there was no money to pay them, but by husbands of the clubwomen.

For the first two years, the club met all running expenses of the entire building by sponsoring huge community projects that so consumed their time and energies that their husbands decided the townpeople should show their appreciation for the women's work by allowing $500 a year toward upkeep and expenses of the library through the community chest.

Rentals of the Community Room have been purposely kept as low as possible so the room has met a need in the Campbell social and business life. The club holds sixteen meetings a year in the room, but is on the job all the year in caring for the building, its furnishings and grounds.

All rentals go toward this end and any deficit not covered by the $500 from the Community Service Fund, plus rentals is met by the Country Woman's Club. The $500 has not been increased through the years despite the increase in cost of all services.

FUNDS FOR REPAIRS

A full system of accounting has always been employed, properly audited by competent accountants, and the money which has accumulated in the reserve for upkeep has been used for major repairs and improvements.

Some people have asked why the county does not pay for upkeep of the library. It has been the general custom in this state for the communities to furnish the library buildings, while the various county libraries pay the salary of the librarians and furnish the books. In Campbell, since the town owns quite a few books, $10 a month has been allocated to the librarian because of the extra work entailed in the care and distribution of the Campbell Free Library books.

The annual Library Tea, sponsored by the Country Woman's Club and open to the public, is for the purpose of raising money to be used for special projects in the library, permanent reference books, current magazines or new bookshelves. It is not used for running expenses of the library, but kept in a separate fund and administered by the Library Committee.

STATEMENT
In their application for the annual allotment of $500 from this year's Community Service Fund, the club has submitted the following report showing maintenance expenses for the part of the building occupied by the library.

Figures are based on the average taken over a five-year period, 1945-50.

During the past year 4000 people used the library and 30,000 books were loaned. Each year the number of books used and the people reading books has grown.

In her statement accompanying the above request, Mrs. Elda Beth Hill, president of the club, added that:

"The above figures do not include any charges for the many hours members of the Country Woman's Club have given of their time and efforts for managing and supervising the construction and maintenance of the part of the building occupied by the library.

"These costs do not include any charges for rent on the building occupied by the library. The building itself, is donated by the Country Woman's Club. The building was built with that portion designated to be used by the library. The book circulation and numbers of people using the books available in the library is increasing every year. At the present time, all of the available shelf space is being used. In order to add more books to the library, it will be necessary to add stacks in the floor space area. These stacks cost $500 each. This cost will have to be paid by the Country Woman's Club. All the other furnishings in the library have been provided by the club.

"The Country Woman's Club is proud to be able to furnish housing for the library. They greatly appreciate the financial assistance given them by the Community Service Fund as it gives everyone an opportunity to participate in maintaining so worthwhile a community project.

s/ Elda Beth Hill,
President, Country
Woman's Club."

More About T. M. Bone

George Burns and Gracie Allen. The amiable Campbell resident had his hand chosen to play for President Roosevelt's barbecue at San Clemente in the 1930's. The affair was part of the Democratic convention under the direction of James A. Farley, then Postmaster General.

All his life he has liked to be around people, Bone said, especially children, as his own youngsters can readily testify.

He has appeared in his Santa Claus costume before the children of the San Tomas Improvement Club several times. This type of entertainment is right up the Bone avenue. For the past couple of years he has played the role of St. Nick in San Jose department stores and local service clubs.

His costumed impersonations are not limited to Christmas time only. Bone emerges in his Easter bunny outfit, much to the delight of the anticipating children gathered for the occasions.

In his most recent role, Bone replaces Amos Orten who has enacted the Cheery Farmer for several years. Orten is retiring from the work because of ill health. Bone's county-fair costume will be as colorful as his personality. His ensemble includes a yellow duster, hipped boots, grey goatie, blue-bib overalls, the ever-present corn cob pipe, a precariously-placed pair of glasses, a typical straw hat, and as a crowning touch, a reminiscent carpet bag.

Two San Jose city officials and the editor of a nearby paper recommended Bone to the fair committee. The men were familiar with his activities in show business and his friendly attitude toward everyone he met.

His work for the County Fair will start August 28 when he will make numerous radio appearances and visit towns throughout the county, attending service club luncheons. He also will appear at various children's homes and hospitals to distribute fair buttons and entertain the patients.

In order to take the position, Bone resigned his job as superintendent at the Swell-Time Ice Cream company. Upon completion of his "Cheery Farmer" chore, Bone will change garments and start his familiar role of Santa Claus at Hale's department store in San Jose November 19.

His more recent public activities include being master of ceremonies at the Beverly-Burbank Jamboree in 1948 and 1949. He also had his own western band at the Majestic Ballroom in San Jose.

Bone is an active member of the Campbell American Legion post. He has four children in school, two of them in high school. Now living in the San Tomas district, he hopes to move into Campbell providing the children closer connections with their respective schools.

He will appear shortly on the stage of the Campbell theater as part of the "Ma and Pa General Store" stage presentation.

VFW Charter List To Close Sept. 17; Huge Mass Initiation Is Planned

Overseas veterans are again advised that time for signing up in the Lieut. Byron C. Lanphear Post 6305, Veterans of Foreign Wars, is growing short, and only sixteen days remain in which their names will be included in the post charter.

The National Home for Widows and Orphans at Eaton Rapids, Michigan, is one example of the great work, in which all members are partners, that is carried on year after year, and alone is reason enough to belong to the VFW. Delegates to the national convention in Chicago this week will include a visit to this establishment.

The local Post Membership Committee is stepping up its drive for these next two weeks, and plans for a huge mass initiation are being formulated with other posts and auxiliaries from all over California participating. This affair will be open to the public and will be attended by Department of California and district officers, with one of the championship degree teams conferring the initiatory degree on the recruits.

At the last meeting of Lieut. Byron C. Lanphear Post and Auxiliary on August 18, the report of building committee was given, showing progress on the selection of a site for the post home. Several locations were investigated and discussed. District Commander Ed Wetterstrom of Hugh & Thomas Johnson Post and Past Commander George Casselberry of Major R. T. Zane Post, both of San Jose, who were co-chairmen of the building committee which just completed the VFW building on South First Street, San Jose, were present to assist the local group in their plans.

Plans for the Patio Party at the home of Auxiliary President Ona Chubb were discussed, but later this week this affair had to be postponed due to an accident which has hospitalized Mrs. Chubb. The report at this time is that she is improving.

On Sunday, September 17, a caravan of local veterans will trek to Napa County to the annual hospital day north, at the California Veterans Hospital at Yountville. VFW Day at the hospital is an event looked forward to by all concerned and each year attendance is larger.

The softball season being about over, the Post is discussing basketball, and also a probable entry in a Winter League hardball club, also bowling.

Among all these activities are many which are constantly being accomplished more as a duty, such as veterans welfare and hospital work, as well as all the service work carried on by all veteran groups, and to make the organization strong and able to carry on. All veterans are urged to become a part of this work.

September 17 is the last day for the charter and its mighty fine list to be on. Phone Campbell 2773—or Campbell 3002—or Campbell 4374 for information. Or attend the meeting Friday, September 1, at 8 p.m.

Local Youth Youngest Delegate At Stage Employees Conclave In Detroit

Two weeks ago, the International Alliance of Theatrical Stage Employees staged a mass convention in Detroit, Michigan.

Approximately 12,000 projectionists, stage hands, and affiliated personnel gathered for the four-day affair. The youngest delegate present was Thomas J. Miranda, 22, of 16 Foote Street, Campbell.

A local resident for eight years, Miranda has been a movie projectionist for seven of those years. Natives of Hawaii, one and his mother, Mrs. Olivia Miranda, settled in Campbell in 1942.

Tom broke into the movie business at the Campbell theater in 1942, learning the trade from the present operator, Benny Cirado, until 1945.

Miranda, who belongs to Local 796 of the IATSE, was chosen to represent this area at Detroit. The trip, with all expenses paid by the local, lasted for three weeks.

The conclave itself was held in the Masonic Temple from August 14 to 18, inclusive. Among the more eminent speakers, Miranda said, were William Green, president of the AFL, and Eric Johnston, president of the Motion Picture Association.

At the bi-annual session, delegates from every state in the union discussed present global situations and pertinent industry problems.

Following his stay in the Motor City, Miranda visited Niagara Falls via Buffalo. He then journeyed westward across Canada by train until he and two companions reached Kenora, Manitoba.

There, according to Miranda, they were literally kicked off the train. It seemed that at the time, the Canadian railway strike occurred and the passengers suffered accordingly.

The trio traveled by bus to Winnipeg and down into the states. Miranda, currently working at the Sunnyvale theater, is a senior at San Jose State College where he is majoring in physical science. His ambition is to teach upon graduation.

PFE To Add 2100 Refrigerator Cars To Present Fleet

Pacific Fruit Express Company will add another 2100 refrigerator cars to its present fleet of more than 38,000 cars, already the largest in the world, it was announced today by PFE's joint owners, the Southern Pacific and Union Pacific railroads. The new acquisition will raise to approximately $125,000,000 the cost of PFE's fleet modernization and general repair program since World War II, for better service to growers and shippers of perishable foods served by PFE, it was stated.

Included in the newest cars will be 100 heavily-insulated super-giant 50-foot cars for use in moving the steadily increasing traffic in frozen foods. The PFE already has 414 cars especially designed for this type of service.

The other 2000 new cars will have all the modern improvements already built into other PFE postwar cars—including air-circulating fans, half-stay iceing grates (for economy in cases where full icing is not needed), sidewall flues—and in addition will have larger door openings employing sliding doors and will be equipped with steel slatted instead of wooden floor racks.

ALMA TRIO GIVES FINE PERFORMANCE IN SECOND APPEARANCE AT MONTALVO

By PETER CALL

Once again last Saturday afternoon, it was realized what a community asset Villa Montalvo, the estate of the late Senator James P. Phelan, can be in serving the purpose for which it was left with some endowment by the philanthropist whose now historic life was devoted in a large part to the supporting interest of art and artists. The beautiful and spacious Italian villa, set in vast gardens of courts and groves, readily emerges from the overhanging shroud of its fabulous dead past and becomes a welcoming and kingly host whenever its splendid appointments are utilized. This community is heir to a legacy of undivided possibilities. Saturday last, Montalvo lent itself graciously to the third of a series of summer afternoon concerts by the incomparable Alma Trio. The concert was given under the auspices of the Friends of Montalvo, an association that is not quite an organization in strict terminology, but nevertheless, a banded number of far-seeing residents of this community who hope to make of Montalvo an important center of art and musical culture. The Friends of Montalvo are scratching the surface of promising rich diggings; it is, perhaps, smart to be one of them. Montalvo could become another Tanglewood, a Robin Hood Dell, or, who knows, another Salzburg.

One imagines that Beethoven, Brahms, and Schubert smiled lovingly upon the Alma Trio while these in turn did reverence to those masters of music composition. It is a conviction that grows the more one hears this superlative trio that they are first humble before their immortal masters and subsequently worshipful. In their devotions, maintained, of course, by their extraordinary musicianship, it is felt at times that they manage, even, to transcend the highest degree of artistry.

Adolph Baller, pianist, Roman Totenberg, violinist and Gabor Rejto, 'cellist, comprise the trio; each of the latter two on this occasion were heard in sonatas. Mr. Rejto in the exquisitely beautiful Brahms Sonata in F major and Mr. Totenberg in Prokofiev's Sonata in D major.

"Orchids for madam?" asks Louise Tinsley, as she displays a cattleya gaskelliana and cattleya dowiana (orchids to you), two of hundreds to be exhibited at the Santa Clara County Fair floriculture show, September 11 thru 17.

Other events at the six-day wonder fair will include an action-packed rodeo, harness races, quarter horse races, an array of top notch entertainment at the new "Showatorium," portable stage, and half-million dollar grandstand. Exhibits in agriculture, home economics, industry and farm implements, and livestock will be featured throughout the 161 acres of colorfully-landscaped fairgrounds.

Comfort and convenience will be the keynote when visitors come to stay and play all day, every day, September 11 through 17, at San Jose.

4-H Club Conclave To Include Two Local Delegates

Two local youths are among the 35 4-H Club members and leaders who will leave San Jose Wednesday, Aug. 30, for Davis, California, to attend the 30th annual State 4-H Convention.

Representing the Cambrian group is Pat Lucas with Orville Cohee chosen as the San Tomas delegate.

The delegation of rural boys and girls has earned the privilege of making the trip, according to George Shambrook, farm advisor, Agricultural Extension Service.

He said that the delegates have been outstanding in their project work and club activities. They are youths who have continuously kept their project record book up to date and have cooperated with many volunteer local leaders.

While at the convention, the local county members will mingle with other club members from all over California. Mr. Shambrook stated that more than 1100 of them will be in attendance at this year's conclave.

The convention, held on the Davis campus of the College of Agriculture, University of California, will feature demonstrations and lectures on agriculture and home economics to be given by faculty members of the college.

During the two-day session the entire delegation will visit the California State Fair at Sacramento. They will appear on an evening program. The delegation will march, in their white uniforms, down the race track before the grandstand and execute a few maneuvers before the thousands of spectators. Following their stint, the members will take seats in a reserved section and witness the evening program.

Registration of new pupils for the first through eighth grades at Cupertino Union Elementary School, will be conducted during the week of September 11. Pupils will register with Miss Barbara Stitzer, secretary of the school, in her office in Unit 1 on Stevens Creek Road. School will begin on September 18.

No further registration for kindergarten are being accepted, as the classes are full.

Children enrolled in kindergarten last year need not reregister for the first grade, since they have been automatically enrolled.

CALLED OFF ON ACCOUNT OF . . . The scheduled new baseball diamond planned for this year has been delayed due to present global conditions and the Bradley Manor fiasco.

The new field will be situated in the adjacent school-owned orchard, north of the diamond. A new gym, part of the building program, will force the re-location of the playing area. For the time being, according to Laurence J. Hill, superintendent of the high school district, the orchard, a productive enterprise, will remain untouched until further developments occur. Hill stated that he will have additional information regarding the new project October 1.

Thus far, he said, plans are proceeding satisfactorily. Once the gym is started the erection of the field will follow shortly.

"T" TO BE . . . The Campbell high football eleven will utilize the "Pappy T" when on the offense. The local gridmen will be guided by their new head coach, Jim Muir, former University of California star.

Muir and his staff returned last week from Berkeley where they attended a football clinic under the auspices of Bear coach Pappy Waldorf and staff.

Under the Pappy T, the backs are placed in a deeper position and the emphasis is on power. Of course, any speed available will be greatly appreciated. This power attack calls for two-in-one blocking or the single-wing blocking up in the line.

It will be indeed interesting to watch the Bucs perform under a new regime. Aiding Chief Mentor Muir are Junior Morgan, former San Jose State football and basketball star, who will handle the backfield duties and George Miskulin, in charge of the line chores.

PITCHING PERFECTO . . . The few fans that witnessed the local softball playoffs were treated to some of the finest hurling seen in many a season or tournament.

Sid Rock and Dutch Johnson, two of the best softball pitchers in the northern area, engaged in a pair of low-scoring, evenly-tossed games. If the breaks were even and the support of both chuckers continued for quite a spell, maybe until Hector's pups had pups.

Proof in the chewing is in the teeth and the proof of the pitchers' abilities lies in the statistics. Both boys have remarkable records for the two tilts. Over the 14-inning route, Rock allowed only three hits, and struck out 19 batters. Johnson gave up four safeties and also fanned 19 optimistic batsmen.

Though he was charged with the defeats, Dutch's control was as sharp as a two-inch rusty blade. He walked but one batter and ironically enough, the passed one lived to score with the aid of an error.

Rock was just wild enough to keep the opposition from digging in. He walked three, hit one batsman, and was guilty of one wild pitch.

If any one of you doubting dandies refuse to recognize the pitching prowess of the playoffs and the "A" league as a whole, compare the recent contests with the two tourneys held in the area last month and the present one up at Redwood City and San Mateo.

The Campbell Softball League can be favorably compared with any nearby loop in all departments of play and direction. But when it comes to attendance and local support, the CSL couldn't draw flies with Dali and Picasso acting as head artists.

COLORFUL, AT LEAST . . . After untold hours of prognostication, meditation and ex-amination, Col Gerevas, self-appointed manager of the Rotary Rumpleskins, has concocted his batting order and starting line-up for the coming softball clash between his charges and the Kiwanis Katzenjammers.

Gerevas in listing his club gave each player a characteristic nickname. Though we have our doubts as to some of the alleged monickers, we shall report them as written (with a few words of tender explanation).

Leading off for this clan of optimists is "Flash" Hyde, 3b. The rocketed-one earned his new name when he ran the 100-yard dash in "22.5" while in high school. Of course, a strong wind helped set that rapid mark.

"Lightning" Jones Jr. holds down the short stop position. This noble name was bestowed upon Jones because when he swings at a ball his bat never strikes in the same place either.

"Babe" Accardi bats third and plays center field. The reason for his enticing handle is due to his remarkable ability and aptitude of the diamond. (Just like Babe Ruth). No lie. Accardi has yet to strike out with the bases loaded. Can we help it if he is yanked for a pinch hitter whenever the bags are bulging? Such technicalities.

Batting clean-up is second baseman, "Sluggo" Maderis, the answer to a manager's prayer, the other manager's, of course. Sluggo is aptly named for when he was a youth he batted .500 in the fastest league in his territory . . . One of his teammates is now a star for the Elliott's Nursery club.

Behind the batter, well equipped in his catching gear, will be "Reliable" Arends. He was nicknamed thusly because of his extreme, un-earthly punctuality in answering the dinner bell.

"Slasher" Wade will cavort about at buck short. The entire editorial department has thunk and thunk but couldn't derive anything worth penning. No comments, please.

One of the greatest first basemen this side of the railroad tracks will play for the Rumpleskins. None other than "Stretch" Reese, the elongated one from the shores of Lake Erie. He is the only man who can steal second base without leaving first, hence his appropriate name. One day while playing for the Toledo Mudhens, Stretch outdid himself. He leaped high into the ozone to snag a speedy liner. When he came down three minutes later, he discovered that he missed the ball but instead captured a low-flying chicken hawk who was casing the joint in hopes of kidnapping one of the Mudhens. Needless to say, Stretch was the hero of the day.

Left field will be patrolled by "Deerfoot" Saia, the fastest man since the days of Mercury. He is so fast (honest injun) that upon hitting the ball he has to do the hop-skip-and-jump to first in order to give the fielders a chance. Doubtful, aye? Notice him at the game, he'll be hopping and skipping all over the place.

"Gluefoot" Raffanti has been assigned to right field. I won't go on record to say he is exactly tortoise-like in his movement, but he is so, shall we say, careful in his running that he has to take his shaving kit with him when he circles the bases. If not, he would look like Rip Van Winkle by the time he made it to home plate.

Pitching for the Rumpleskins is "Hopeless" Gerevas. The nickname is self-explanatory. Any further explanation would only add to the confusion. But a word to the wise. Watch his tricky motion on the mound. He looks at third, aims at

Bettencourt Mkt. Cops Second Half Honors To Cinch Division Championship

Bettencourt Markets, winners of the first half of play in the "B" division of the local softball loop, prevented any title playoff by coping second-half laurels also Tuesday evening, trimming the American Legion ten, 9 to 6, to automatically cinch the title honors.

A hectic, wild seventh frame produced eight runs for the winners as they came from way back around to trounce their nearest rivals.

Bunching five of their eight hits, plus the generosity of two rival errors, the foodmen tallied five times before a single out was registered.

The legionites jumped off to a one-run lead in the opening frame as center fielder Carter banged out a potent homer into the deep left pasture. Continuing strong, the AL clan pushed across two more runs in the third on an error, a walk, and hits by Carter and MacArthur.

The martmen scored once in the third on a double by Visca and a single by Helmut. Until the fatal finale, the marketeers played dead dog but when they did bark they yelled to the tune of those eight important markers.

In their bottom of the seventh, the legion ten refused to be interred as they tallied three runs. An error by shortstop McNeil combined with bingles by Whitten, Byron, and Profero did enough damage to cause the ultimate winners to fret no end. But close in is horseshoes and dancing only and the three tallies added no one at all.

The Legion's catcher Carter practically took the foodmen into camp single-handed. He powdered, in addition to his four-ply job, a two-bagger in the third and a single-base rap in the fifth. In the final uprising when his club was on the loose, he was able to contribute but a fielder's choice to the cause.

It was a team victory in every sense so far as the BM clan was concerned. The nine runs were divided among nine batters as were the eight safeties.

In the error department, Bettencourt was the winner also, booting four chances as compared with two miscues by the vanquished.

Although the Legion outthit the chow clan, they had the honor of leaving eight vital runners stranded abase.

Grammar School Wins Junior Loop Title Wednesday

Campbell Grammar School won the brief but bitterly-contested Campbell Junior Softball League by clipping Earl's Barber Shop on Wednesday, 15 to 4.

A loss for the undefeated grammar group would have thrown the loop into a tie as Kiwanis finished only one game out of first.

The league trophy will be presented to the team next week when the victors celebrate with a picnic at Alum Rock Park. Neil Royer, manager, will accept the award on behalf of his champs.

Mainstay of the winners was B. Hill, stellar hurler who led the team through five unbeaten encounters.

Wednesday he tossed a six-hitter against the barber boys. He started out rather auspiciously by whiffing eight of the first nine batters to face him. Strange as it may seem, he didn't fan another batter from then on.

At the end of two innings the score was tied at three apiece. But in the third frame, the locals iced the rather hotly-contested tilt by pushing across eight tallies on four hits and five walks issued by opposing chucker, Bill Plymale.

Campbell added single runs in the fourth and fifth frames and two more in the sixth.

After the third count, Hill settled down and allowed three hits and one run to win going away.

Indian Program And Menu Enjoyed By Youth Group

Indian dances, Indian costumes and Indian food were features of a recent program put on by younger members of the Campbell Summer Recreation Program as a culmination of a week's study of Indian life.

At Campbell Grammar school, about 75 pupils under the direction of Dorothy Wilkinson participated in the program that included a parade of costumes made of burlap, brown butcher paper and feathers, Indian dances to recorded Indian music, a serving of corn cooked in Indian style, and movies about Indians.

A similar program at San Tomas school under the direction of Miss Margaret Enas had 65 pupils participating. Mrs. Balsoyuan assisted with the program.

At Campbell, Mrs. H. Tragardh helped with preparations and presentation of the program. Other parents assisting were Mrs. Lloyd Brown and Mrs. C. L. Ackerman.

Vets To Retain Education Benefits

Administrator of Veterans Affairs, Carl R. Gray, Jr., today issued a ruling relative to veterans of World War II who interrupt their education or training to re-enter active military or naval service.

The Administrator stated: "Many questions have been raised concerning the right of veterans who enter the active military or naval service to resume education and training after the statutory cut off dates. I have determined that any veteran who has initiated his course of education and training, whose conduct and progress in such course has been satisfactory and who is prevented by reason of re-entrance into the active military or naval service from resuming education or training before July 25, 1951 or the date four years subsequent to his discharge will be permitted to resume education or training within a reasonable period following his release from the active service even though such release is subsequent to July 25, 1951.

"Such education or training is limited of course by the extent of the veteran's remaining entitlement and by the statutory provision that no education or training may be afforded beyond July 25, 1956, or in the case of a person who voluntarily enlisted or re-enlisted under provision of PL 190 79th Congress the date nine years subsequent to the veterans discharge from such enlistment."

Sid Rock Bests Dutch Johnson Twice As Unearned Runs Play Potent Part

In some of the fastest softball seen anywhere in the county this year, Leon Terry defeated Mac's Market in two consecutive games to capture the Campbell Softball "A" League championship.

In the opener of the two-out-of-three series, Sid Rock outdueled Dutch Johnson by the tune of 1 to 0.

Both hurlers were, as usual, in top form. Rock set the foodmen down with one hit, that a single in the third by shortstop Coyle. Johnson allowed two safeties with neither blow figuring in the decisive tally.

As is the case in many a tight pitching tilt, the winning run was of the unearned category. In the ill-fated fourth frame, mid-gardener Ruiz led off by reaching first on an error by J. Smith in right field. He subsequently scored on a sacrifice bunt by Baldinger.

Further proof of Rock's effectiveness was that only one ball was hit into the outfield, other than the hit, and that a routine fly to center in the second by Minardi.

Johnson in fanning six and issuing nary a pass had no trouble with opposing batters with the exception of R. Rodriguez, who solved Dutch's slants for both safeties. Rock struck out 10 macmen, walked two and was guilty of one wild pitch.

The second game proved to be another thriller, with Rock repeating by the score of 2 to 1. Both chuckers issued two hits, but Johnson was the victim of defensive sins committed by his cohorts, which accounted for one tally.

In the fourth inning, the terry-men scored the only "honest" run of either game as left fielder Campos connected with one of Johnson's fast balls and made a faster ball out of the pitch, blasting it for a four-bagger.

The winners scored their other run in the third when O'Brien walked and scored on an error by the catcher.

Mac's registered their only tally of the playoffs in the bottom of the fourth when Minardi stroled and scored eventually on a fly ball to right.

In the "K" department, Johnson whiffed 13 and Rock fanned 9 with the latter a trifle wilder, walking three as to one for Johnson. Rock also hit one batsman.

The victors were presented the team trophy immediately following the second game. The presentation was made by Tony Bakich, head of the board of directors.

Draft Information Warns Violators

Mr. Harry M. Kimball, Special Agent in Charge of the San Francisco Office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, today urged all eligible men to comply fully with provisions of the Selective Service Act of 1948.

In discussing provisions of the Act and affirmative steps eligible men may take to avoid delinquency, Mr. Kimball said that a violation of the Selective Service Act is a very serious matter. The Act is designed to provide for the common defense by increasing the personnel of the Armed Forces of the United States and provide for their training. A willful violator may be subjected to stringent penalties including imprisonment up to five years, or a fine as high as $10,000 or both.

Mr. Kimball said that recently Mr. J. Edgar Hoover, Director of the FBI, had suggested, for the benefit of those not familiar with the requirements, observance of the following:

1. Register promptly.
2. Fill out and return your questionnaire promptly.
3. Keep your local board advised of your current mailing address.

The FARMERS CORNER

Executive Secretary
Agricultural Council of California

BRANNAN WANTS MORE CONTROL

With the same old bee buzzing in his bonnet—further federal encroachment upon agriculture—Secretary of Agriculture Charles F. Brannan has announced his intention to substitute federal inspection for the service that has been rendered by the Dried Fruit Association of California for the producers and food industry on raisins, dried prunes, and walnuts.

In other words, according to 16 western congressmen who have filed an abrupt protest with the Secretary of Agriculture, it is Brannan's announced intention to take over all grading and inspection services in the future on all Department of Agriculture assistance programs, or where Federal Marketing Agreements and orders are involved.

PRESENT SERVICE EXCELLENT

The fact of the matter is that the Dried Fruit Association, over a period of 40 years, has established an inspection service that is second to none. The service permits California to sell dried fruit and nuts all over the world—f.o.b.—an accomplishment that is not true in the case of any other agricultural commodity.

Thus despite the crystal-clear record of integrity and thoroughness of inspection of the Dried Fruit Association—recognized the world around—the government wants to take over. The complete success of any endeavor under private enterprise is no deterrent to the plan of government to move in.

Commenting on the proposed arbitrary action, the 16 western congressmen in their letter of protest to Secretary Brannan point out that "it is conceivable that all agricultural production involved in Federal Marketing Agreements, export subsidies, price support programs, whether purchase, loan, or purchase agreement, would be subject to federal inspection."

"This then could apply to wheat, corn, apples, pears, dried beans, peanuts, soy beans, and many others. It would unquestionably call for much expanded inspection service, and an increased load for the taxpayers and the consumers."

The 16 congressmen continued: "In our view, the function of the Department (Agriculture) is to cooperate in such programs for the good of the industry... competent industry facilities should be used to the utmost... The good faith of the Department must be questioned by an industry when... so summarily dealt with as is currently proposed by the Department."

CONGRESSMEN PROTEST
Concluding their protest to Brannan on behalf of agriculture, the congressmen declared: "It is our considered opinion that the Dried Fruit Association of California should be permitted to perform inspection services for the prune industry, the raisin industry, and walnut industry... as long as that Association is the choice of those industries. We strongly urge and recommend that this course be followed."

It remains to be seen whether the attempt to impose government control over an industry with a superlative and unblemished record of achievement still will be made.

4. Report for examination and induction when so ordered.
 5. Report changes in your family status or occupation which may have a bearing on your classification.

SERVICE NEWS

Rct. Roy W. "Bill" Downing, 17, of Campbell has arrived at Fort Ord and will immediately begin his basic training with the famous Fighting Fourth Infantry division.

At the completion of 14 weeks basic training, Rct. Downing will be permanently assigned or selected for a specialist school. He attended Roosevelt high school and is the son of Mrs. Harold Olson, who resides at 133 North Winchester, Campbell.

Former World War II prisoners of war and civilian internees in Santa Clara County who have been wondering why they have not yet received the war claims benefit payments for which they made formal application several months ago are being informed by John V. Davis, Veterans Service Officer, that they have no choice but to be patient.

"The War Claims Commission in Washington, D.C., is badly understaffed," Davis explained. "So far they've been able to adjudicate and pay only about one claim out of every 25 received. It can't be done by a machine procedure like the recent GI Insurance dividend, since each case has to be studied individually."

Under the War Claims Act of 1948, former prisoners of war and civilian internees are entitled to payment in view of substandard diet to which they were subjected while in enemy hands. In the case of ex-POWs, this benefit amounts to $1 a day for each day of imprisonment. The money comes from enemy assets held in this country.

Mr. Davis pointed out that only formal claims are being considered by the Commission; informal ones, such as letters, do not count. Claim forms are available at the Santa Clara County Veterans Service office, 215 N. First street, San Jose.

Surviving next-of-kin of deceased prisoners and internees may also be eligible for the payments. The veteran's type of discharge has no bearing on his eligibility of war claim benefits, even though it may be of a kind which bars him from other types of veterans benefits.

Methodist Group Holds Pot-Luck

The Young Adult Fellowship of the Campbell Methodist Church will resume regular activity this weekend after a summer recess.

The group will meet Sunday, September 3, at 6:00 p.m. for a "pot-luck" dinner to be held at the parish house.

Members are invited to bring their families and are asked to bring their own silver, dinnerware and a hot dish or salad. Coffee will be provided. A nursery with baby tenders will be furnished.

According to Mrs. George Miller, secretary, tentative plans are made to present an entertainment program following the dinner.

between the ages of eighteen and twenty-six are required to register. Persons becoming eighteen must register within five days after their eighteenth birthday.

Where investigation reveals violations of the Selective Service Act, Mr. Kimball said the facts will be presented to the proper United States Attorney for a decision on prosecutive action. He cautioned all registrants against making false or fictitious registration. The possession of a fraudulently obtained, forged or altered registration certificate or classification notice is also a violation of the Act.

POPULAR RECORDS: Versatile Red Foly has progressed from Chattanooga to Cincinnati, with his version of Shoe Shine Boy still spinning on many turntables. Red now offers CINCINNATI DANCING PIG (Decca 46261). Red's singing, plus tap-dance routine and realistic pig squeals and grunts add up to a clever novelty that is sure to please the country-boy's many fans.

Bing Crosby's relaxed and stirring method of putting across a song gives the added touch that means greatness to the English adaptation of the French tune, "Boleero." Retitled ALL MY LOVE the ditty is danceable, singable and completely captivating (Decca 27117).

If you are fond of the irresistible rhythm and twang of the old time player-piano, the lusty, sentimental ditties that are closely associated with the clink of ice in the glasses, the staccato chatter of the poker chips and perhaps some off-key impromptu barbershop quartet singing, try BACK ROOM PIANO by Frank Froeba and his boys (Decca DLP 5043).

Anyone who has heard good Jazz played under the proper conditions cannot help but be disappointed in what is dished out on a 10 or 12-inch disc and called Jazz. The Jazz instrumentalist requires time to warm up, to feel his idiom, to get the hang of things. A good jazz performance is 90 per cent created on the spot, for the heart of jazz is improvisation and that takes time and the closeness of feeling and mood between the listeners and the performers. When jazz is limited to the time requirement of a 10 or 12-inch record, solos have to be cut, development is hindered, the necessary time and space to move around in is absent and the Jazz becomes synthetic. I have yet to hear a Jazz recording that can come anywhere near the great live performances, however, the advent of the Long-Playing disc and the Norman Grantz' JAZZ AT THE PHILHARMONIC series come quite close to the real thing. Recorded with an audience and not hindered by lack of time the great jazz artists are free to give rein to their talents and the result is thrilling and exciting listening. Volume 11 of the JATP series is decidedly different from the preceding "dido" series, it is quiet, contemplative, mood-music with marvelous solos on the classic MAN I LOVE by Dizzy Gillespie, Lester Young, Mel Powell, Charlie Ventura and Willie Smith. Volume 12 of the JATP series is back in the groove of excitement-type jazz, two tunes are included in this package — THE OPENER and LESTER LEAPS IN.

CHILDREN'S RECORDS: How about some light-hearted gaiety for the small fry? Let's forget the "education" or "musical appreciation" records for a while, and give the children something to tickle their funny-bones. THE FROGZEE AND THE FLYZEE is full of the kind of slapstick succession of nonsense words that reduce any child into a bundle of giggles at every hearing. The flip is the BUBBLE GUM POLKA complete with appropriate "chew-chew-pop" sounds (Columbia MJV 64).

CLASSICAL RECORDS: ERNA SACK sings OPERA HIGHLIGHTS and SONG FAVORITES (Mercury MG 10044) is a good and well justified pot-pourri of favorite selections. Erna Sack has one of the most astonishing voices of all times, both in its extraordinary range and that consummately accurate sense of exact pitch and of beautiful phrasing that is so rare. Technically the recording is not all one might wish for but if you are fond of coloratura singing, you will enjoy this immensely.

RECIPES OF THE WEEK

Thrifty meat dishes that tempt the appetite and satisfy the hungriest member of the family are the dishes you're always looking for. No other food offers the same flavor and satisfaction that meat does. But if you are operating on a rather slim budget, you have to choose your meats carefully and make good use of the more economical cuts.

Many foreign countries have "national" dishes which make the most of what we call the "less popular" cuts of meat. We Americans, too, have our favorites that fall in this group—in fact, they are often the dishes most popular with men. To name just a few, there are Corned Beef and Cabbage, Barbecued Spareribs, Spaghetti with Meat Sauce and Frankfurters with Sauerkraut.

Here are two more which should be in your collection. They're flavorful, hearty dishes. And you'll find that the long, slow cooking makes the meat very tender and appetizing.

BEEF STEAK AND KIDNEY PIE

- 1 pound beef kidney
- 1½ pounds chuck steak
- 2 tablespoons lard or drippings
- ½ cup onion rings
- 2 teaspoons salt
- ¾ teaspoon pepper
- 1 tablespoon Worcestershire sauce
- 1 tablespoon lemon juice
- 2 cups boiling water
- 2 tablespoons flour

If you are one of those who, you're not the only one! Most homemakers do—except the lucky ones who have automatic dishwashers. But dishwashing doesn't need to be the drudgery that some folks make it.

Of course, there are times when you have good company to help you and doing the dishes is a social affair. But usually, your chief aim is to do the job with the least effort and have it over with as quickly as possible. There are ways to do this. In fact, you can actually cut dishwashing time in half by working out a system and sticking to it.

The first essential is to have a convenient place to work and the necessary tools. A study of dishwashing carried out in a college home economics department led to the conclusion that if you are right-handed, it will save you time and energy to work from right to left. But whichever direction seems best for you, don't change your course in the middle of the job.

Let's say you are working from right to left. You should have space to the right of the sink for stacking the dishes to be washed. First, they are scraped with a rubber scraper and rinsed under the faucet.

If the sink is too low to stand at without stooping, try sitting on a stool. Or use a dishpan set on the shelf or on a rack or inverted pan in the sink.

Rinsing may be done in a second sink to the left (or the one sink if you use a dishpan for washing). Place dishes in a drainer—two long wire handles, one at either end, make it easy to lift. Set in very hot water deep enough to cover the dishes, and let stand for two minutes. This method makes the dishes sanitary and heats them enough so they'll dry quickly in the air. Only phony Orchestra conducted by Josef Krips is outstanding in many ways (London LLP 208). Josef Krips gives an inspiring, musical performance without any of the bombast and display that so many conductors indulge in when faced with music conceived so magnificently in outline and so elaborate in detail as the Symphony of Brahms. The recording is outstanding technically—both mass and detail effects are crystal clear. "Much present-day music excites and thrills but does not exalt," writes a wise man. Brahms' music does exalt and it grew slowly in the mind and heart of the composer, slowly it must grow in the heart and mind of the listener. Each time I listen to this Symphony, I discover new delights and still I feel that I have only scratched the surface—it is good music to grow up with and to grow old with.

¼ cup cold water
Pastry or biscuit dough
Soak kidney in cold salted water for 30 minutes. Cut steak in 1-inch cubes. Drain kidney and cut in smaller cubes. Melt lard in large frying-pan or heavy kettle; brown onion and meats in lard. Add salt, pepper, Worcestershire sauce, lemon juice and boiling water. Cover closely and simmer slowly for 2 hours or until meat is tender. If not enough gravy, add more water. Mix flour with cold water and stir into gravy to thicken it. Transfer to casserole. Cover with pastry or thinly rolled baking powder biscuits. Bake at 425° F. for 20 minutes or until brown. Serves 6.

BAKED STUFFED SPARERIBS

- 4 small or 2 large sides spareribs, Salt and pepper
- ½ pound salt pork, diced (1 cup)
- 1 cup chopped celery
- ½ cup chopped onion
- 1 cup diced tart apples
- 2 tablespoons sugar
- 8 cups bread cubes (2 quarts)
- 2 tablespoons chopped parsley
- 1 teaspoon caraway seeds

Rub spareribs with salt and pepper. Place in open pan in 350° F. oven. Fry salt pork until crisp. Add celery, onion, apples and sugar. Cook slowly until tender. Add bread cubes, parsley and caraway seeds. When ribs have baked 45 minutes, place over the bread dressing and continue cooking for 1 hour or until brown and tender. Serves 6.

glasses and silver, pots and pans are dried with a towel.

Another method of rinsing is to dip each piece in a pan of hot water, using a pair of kitchen tongs, and then place in drainer. This means more time and motions, however. Rinsing with a spray or teakettle does not do as good a job.

There should be space at the left to stand the drainer after the dishes are rinsed, until they are put away. All necessary equipment—dishcloth, sponge, brush or mop, soap or other detergent, cleanser, steel wool pads, etc.—are stored close by, usually under the sink. Towels should be handy, too.

It's mighty convenient to have the glasses, silverware and even dishes which you use most for everyday meals stored in cupboards within arm's reach of the dishwashing center. Then the washing, drying and putting away can be one continuous operation. If this is not the case, use a good-sized tray or small utility table and make as few trips as possible.

It goes without saying that plenty of water—plenty hot—makes dishwashing easier and more thorough.

Rinse water should be hotter than your hands can stand. Use whatever soap or other detergent depends on the water supply (whether hard or soft) and your own preference. Find out the best amount to use, and measure it every time. Other items good to have close by are silver-polish and cloth to deal with tarnish on individual items, and a protective hand lotion.

A few last tips: Make both hands work. Cut your motions to a minimum. Practice your system until it's perfect. And if it makes the job go faster—sing or whistle while you work!

Start with the mash. Then, at the end of the fourth week, begin scattering pellets on top of the mash each forenoon and afternoon. Use quantities the birds will clean up in about 30 minutes. It sharpens their appetites—puts on 4 to 8 ounces more per bird... more than pays for the extra time involved. Larro feeders are getting 3 1/2-pound birds in 12 weeks.

Lithograph Exhibit At Villa Montalvo

The exhibit of colored lithographs at Montalvo will be open again to the public this Saturday from 1 to 4 p.m. The colorful works by Sturgis Mower and Jerry Oppen of the California School of Fine Arts, San Francisco, have been on display for two weeks, and may be held over for another week.

Friends of Montalvo hope to keep the gallery open on succeeding Wednesday and Saturday afternoons with a series of art exhibits. One of these will be an exhibit of children's drawings and paintings which will be brought from San Jose. Miss Estella Holsholt of Saratoga is making arrangements for the show with Miss Philomena Goldsworthy. The children's works will be those of young artists from the primary through junior high school ages.

West of Ione, Amador county, is a clay pit which has been in continuous production since at least 1864.

"Say gal, shoot that gun so we can get this Diaper Derby going," says Kristine Lucich, left, and Elizabeth Pope to the starter, Regan Farr, of San Jose, as the trio gets in shape for the sixth annual Diaper Derby at the Santa Clara County Fair, September 11 thru 17.

Major events of this two and a half million dollar fair include an action packed rodeo, harness and quarter horse races, an array of entertainment features in the new "Showatorium," and half million dollar grandstand.

Exhibits in agriculture, horticulture, floriculture, home economics, commerce and industry, and a new farm implement tent display will be featured in this 161-acre colorful fairgrounds.

Miriam Wallin Takes Office As Pomona At Recent Cupertino Grange Session

Miss Miriam Wallin was officially installed at Pomona by Master Dwight F. Sheffer at last Friday evening's meeting of Cupertino Grange 739. Guest honors were accorded Master Stanley Smith of San Jose Grange.

It was voted to hold a public card party in the near future, and Sisters Sheffer, Wood and Wallin were appointed as an executive committee to set the date and make the arrangements. A group of members is planning to attend the state grange luncheon on Grange Day, September 6, at the California State Fair in Sacramento.

Next meeting, on September 8, will be highlighted by celebration of the second birthday anniversary of Cupertino Grange.

Sister Bean projected the film, "A Fortune in Two Old Trunks," showing the origin and development of the prune industry in the Santa Clara Valley.

Hostesses for the evening were Mrs. Paul Bean and Mrs. Carl Hanneman.
